

Prevent Child Abuse of Clark and Floyd Counties

Prevent Child Abuse of Clark and Floyd Counties provides prevention awareness and educational information to communities in Clark and Floyd counties with the emphasis on abuse and neglect being preventable. This program coordinates services to prevent child abuse and neglect.

The coordinator of this program speaks to various groups to promote awareness of child abuse and neglect and methods of prevention. This person promotes public education by writing articles, letters, and distributing educational materials. The coordinator facilitates the monthly meetings of the Prevent Child Abuse Council of Clark and Floyd Counties to coordinate services for awareness projects. The coordinator helps to research and highlight community services available to families.